- B. The Compliance Officer is responsible for development, oversight and monitoring of the Compliance and Fraud, Waste, and Abuse (FWA) program.
- C. The Compliance Officer offers oversight and implementation of the Compliance Program goals.
- D. The Compliance Officer duties are delineated fully in the Compliance Plan.
- E. The Compliance Officer periodically, and at least quarterly, report directly to the Governing Body of the ACO on the activities and status of the Compliance Program, including issues identified, investigated, and resolved by the Compliance Program.
- F. The Governing Body supports the following actions:
 - 1. Meets on, at a minimum, a quarterly basis;
 - 2. Develops strategies to promote compliance and the detection of any potential violations;
 - 3. Ensures training and education is appropriately completed;
 - 4. Assists with the creation and implementation of the monitoring and auditing work plan;
 - 5. Assists in the creation of effective corrective action plans and ensures that they are implemented and monitored;
 - 6. Develops innovative ways to implement appropriate corrective and preventive actions;
 - 7. Oversees a system of internal controls to carry out the ACO's standards as part of its daily operations;
